HAS COMPLIED WITH ALL OF THE INFORMATION BELOW:

(a) COMPLIANCE: Compliance with current copyright law is required of all participants in the High Plains Marching Festival.

The High Plains Marching Festival expects that all participant schools comply with all applicable copyright laws at its events. It is solely a school's responsibility to determine what licenses may be required and to obtain any and all necessary licenses prior to participation in the High Plains Marching Festival. Such licenses may include, but are not limited to, arrangement licenses or synchronization licenses if video is to be made of music synchronized to movement. The High Plains Marching Festival recommends that a school with questions regarding its particular musical performance and associated licensing requirements contact the school's legal counsel.

This document signifies that you have obtained the appropriate copyright permissions for the show to be performed and can deliver them upon request.
